Smart Winter Apparel for Misses and Girls

at clearance prices tomorrow

The gradual readjustment of our stocks at this time of the year furnishes the younger generation of women with many opportunities to gratify their need of new and stylish apparel at a trifling cost. Not only that, but it also brings higher-priced apparel within the reach of modest means and enables many a miss to overcome the handicap of having more taste than money. The reductions in this offering easily average fifty per cent., and it is a once-a-season opportunity to take advantage of sweeping economies. Second floor

Coats, Suits and Dresses which women may buy tomorrow at one-half original prices

A comparison of former and present figures will best convey to you the message of this event. No precedent has governed the ratio of these reductions. We have had an unusually prosperous season and are disposed to consider the expediency of cleaning up, as of more importance than the loss involved in lowered prices.

I Meanwhile we wish to impress upon you the urgency of taking immediate advantage of this opportunity, in order that you may forestall possible disappointment. So liberal a collection of apparel as this must contain at least several garments to match your requirements, but they are hardly likely to wait long at such favorable price-inducements.
